*Retention period is 55 years if the violation is flagged "commercial", and the conviction date is greater than 4/1/92.

If a conviction has a withdrawal (suspension/revocation) it will remain on the record for 10 years from the reinstatement date; permanently if not reinstated; or the period listed, whichever is the greatest date.

The purge periods listed for the convictions are from the date of conviction, not the date of citation.

Driver History Records

A complete driving record is purged according to the following criteria:

Deceased Driver, Expired Driver License:

- Driver license or permit has been expired more than 1 year.
- Record does not have military card indicator, or has military card indicator and deceased status.
- No conviction, withdrawal or accident entries remain after applying purge criteria listed on pages 1-7.
- No accidents on Department of Roads' files.
- No work file attached to record.

Dummy Records:

- Date the name was added by the exam process is less or equal to June 30 of purge year.
- No license/permit expiration date.
- No conviction, withdrawal or accident entries remain after applying purge criteria listed on pages 1-7.
- No accidents on Department of Roads' files.
- No work file attached to record.

Record Marked as Surrendered:

- Record has surrendered status.
- Most recent change state surrender or voluntary surrender date is more than 1 year ago.
- No conviction, withdrawal or accident entries remain after applying purge criteria listed on pages 1-7.
- We are not the state of record for CDL.

Exam Process History:

- No history records are present. [Note: History records are purged on a monthly basis once they reach an age of 11 years (unless marked as fraud related)].
